PROFESSIONAL EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

University of Texas at San Antonio, San Antonio, TX. (7/2013 – Present), Director – Policy Studies Center. The stated mission of the Center is to be a resource to any person or entity that shares the goal of enhancing the quality of life of historically underserved populations. The Center serves society by providing research, training and technical assistance to groups and individuals that wish to further the goals of the College of Public Policy. We operationalize our goals by; 1) serving as a forum for civic engagement and policy dialogue; 2) facilitating collaborative research and grant activity across the university and within the region; 3) disseminating knowledge through extended education, policy briefs, editorials, and media coverage; informing policy decision-making through evidence-based research and dialogue.

University of Texas at San Antonio, San Antonio, TX. (6/2009 – 1/2013), Chair of the Department of Criminal Justice in College of Public Policy. Responsible for SACS COC accreditation and reaccreditation for department which includes documentation of faculty qualifications of tenured, tenure-track and non-tenure track faculty; conducting learning assessments of key classes to ascertain if learning goals and objectives are met; and collecting and sharing data with stakeholders to show continuous departmental improvement and document institutional effectiveness. I was the primary personnel administrator for academic unit with 22 (tenured, tenure-track, non-tenure track) faculty; 2 administrative personnel; and 2 college work-study employees. I prepare annual evaluations for faculty and administrative personnel and address all personnel issues including hiring, firing, reprimands, raises, promotion and tenure decisions for employees in my unit. I administered a 2 million dollar budget for the department that includes faculty salaries, administrative and professional salaries, travel, and maintenance & operation funds. Responsible for proposing and implementing FY budget for academic unit of 950 undergrads and 40 graduate students. I was responsible for safeguarding the physical assets of the academic unit including: laptops, personal data devices, projectors, audiovisual equipment and cameras to ensure compliance with inventory control procedures.

University of Texas at San Antonio, San Antonio, TX. (8/2008 – 6/2009), Associate Professor & Graduate Director Department of Criminal Justice.

University of Texas at San Antonio, San Antonio, TX. (8/2002 – 8/2008), Assistant Professor Department of Criminal Justice.

Law Offices of David W. Rogers, Inc., San Antonio, TX. (5/2001 – 9/2003), Associate and trial attorney at criminal defense firm.
