

Syllabus Addendum for an Independent Study Course

Course #:

Course Name:

Course goals and objectives (including topics to be covered):

Required assignments/deliverables (including at least one rough page requirement for written assignments) and the grading weight to each:

Final grading scale, making sure to indicate whether plus/minus or whole letter grades will be utilized:

Impact on student's program of study (i.e. whether it will substitute for a particular course or count as a support course/elective):

Contact hours for student/professor meeting times throughout the semester (Ex: once a week, twice a month, etc.):

Course policies (participation, expectations, late assignment policies, etc.):

Student Name:

Student Signature:

Instructor Name:

Instructor Email:

Instructor's Office Hours and Location:

Instructor's Signature:

*Adjunct faculty are not authorized to supervise Independent Studies. Full-time, non-tenure track (NTT) faculty may be authorized to supervise undergraduate level Independent Studies, at the discretion of the Department Chair, but are not authorized to supervise graduate level Independent Studies.